The republican electors of this territory and all who believe in the principles of the republican party and in its policies as announced in the national republican platform adopted by the republican national convention, held in the city of Philadelphia, June 19, 1900, and who believe in and endorse statehood for the territory of New Mexico and favor an honest, fair and just administration of public affairs in this territory are respectfully and cordially asked to unite under this call and to take part in the selection of delegates to the territorial convention.

FRANK A. HUBBELL,
Chairman Republican Central Committee.
Attest: JOSE D. SERNA, Secretary.

A Missouri justice summarily suppressed a gum chewer in his court. Too bad that the jurisdiction of that justice does not extend to gum-shoe Bill.

VISIONS of green ranges and fat cattle possess the cowman's imagination these days. The rains of the last few days have probably been the best in twenty years.

It is to be hoped that the Roswell Record under its new management will be no less creditable to the community in which it is published than it has been under the old management. The paper reached and maintained a high standard of excellence.

THE Raton Range appears in a special edition profusely illustrated and giving an exhaustive write up of the city and county in which it is published. The edition speaks well for the enterprise of the paper and for the appreciative support it receives.

THE Silver City Enterprise suffered a grave misfortune Sunday afternoon in the destruction of its building by the greatest flood that has visited Silver City in many years. Editor Bush will have the hearty sympathy of his brother editors in the territory, all of whom will wish him a speedy restoration to former flourishing conditions.

THE CHIEFTAIN is a republican paper and expects to support the republican county ticket, nevertheless it has a word of warning to offer to the slate-makers. If a slate is made by republican leaders with a view to putting efficient men in office, the action is commendable. If, however, a slate is made with a view to gratifying somebody's political ambition regardless of other considerations, the action is at least unwise and will seriously jeopardize the chances of the party's success at the polls this fall. The results of the election two years ago should teach extreme caution now.

EXCEPTION has been taken to statements contained in an editorial in this paper last week. The first statement was to the effect that there is likely to be a dearth of teachers in Socorro county during the coming school year, and the second was to the effect that it is desirable that first class teachers come from outside the territory to swell the number of those already here. The first statement was based on the fact that some districts in the county had difficulty in securing the services of any teachers at all last year. Furthermore, some districts are already experiencing the same difficulty this year. The second statement means simply that if the county has not teachers enough some inducement should be offered to first class teachers to come from abroad. No fair minded reader will find in either statement a direct or an implied reflection upon the character of Socorro county's corps of teachers.

AND now the Elephant Butte dam case is again to come up in the court of the third judicial district for a rehearing. Twice has this case been heard in the court of the third district, twice has the action of this court been affirmed by the territorial supreme court, and twice has the United States supreme court sent the case back to the district court for a rehearing. The United States is plaintiff in the case, the Rio Grande Dam and Irrigation company is defendant, and the action is brought to restrain the defendant from damming the Rio Grande at Elephant Butte. The action of the territorial courts was reversed by the United States supreme court in the first instance in order that further testimony might be taken as to whether the proposed appropriation of water by the defendant would interfere with the navigation of the river and in the second instance on the ground that the government had not had time to prepare its case. The more the course of this case and the circumstances connected therewith are studied the more obvious it becomes that a certain nefarious gang of highwaymen are bent upon throttling a legitimate private enterprise that would be of vast public benefit, all for their own gain.

More Trouble for Cuba.

SENOR TERRY's resignation as minister of agriculture of the Cuban government shows that the President Palma's task in keeping the radical elements of his countrymen in order is a pretty difficult one. Terry has had considerable experience in his post. He held it during most of the American occupation and was an especial favorite of Governor General Wood. On Wood's recommendation he was continued in that office under the Cuban government. He is a man of sagacity, knowledge and balance. He was the strongest man, intellectually, in Palma's official family.

It is understood that the cause of Senor Terry's resignation is the increasing activity of the extremists throughout the island. These men want to obliterate, as soon as possible, all trace of the American occupation, and to cut their country loose from all social or sentimental connection with the United States. They care nothing for the Platt restrictions in their constitution. They would ignore these and run their government on radical lines. One of their demands is an appropriation for the payment of the alleged Cuban revolutionary army, which has suddenly swelled to immense proportions. The Americans, when they invaded the island to drive the Spaniards out, could not get a glimpse of any Cuban soldiers except about 1,500 or 2,000, but on the general round-up, which a chance for an appropriation causes, many times that number answer to their names.

Such men as Palma and Terry stand for the conservative element of the Cuban people. They know the obligations under which Cuba rests for its emancipation from Spanish sway, and would respect them. The Platt restrictions to their constitution are just as sacred to them as is any other part of that instrument. They are friends of the United States and would run their own government on similar lines, so far as this could be done under the dissimilar conditions prevailing in the two countries. The resignation of Terry and the assaults which are being made upon Palma and the rest of the moderates by a powerful element of the Cuban Press show that our wards in the Mexican gulf are arranging a good deal of trouble for themselves, and possibly some trouble for the United States.—Globe-Democrat.

The Nation as a Policeman.

SIMULTANEOUS disturbances in several of the Latin-American republics have made this a busy summer for the four or five small war-vessels of the United States in the Caribbean.

The Machias, the Marietta, the Ranger and the others have been hurried from one danger point to another. They have been despatched to Nicaragua, where there was a brief excitement over an invasion from Colombia; to Colombia, where the insurrection now more than three years old was menacing the railroad across the isthmus, and the ports at either end; to Venezuela, where peaceful folk and property interests were in peril almost equally from government and insurgent troops, and to Haiti, where one of the fighting factions was preparing to bombard Cape Haitien without regard to the presence of foreign residents and women and children.

The United States does not intervene between these republics, nor between a government and insurgents against it. It cannot prevent the republics from fighting, but it can see to it that the lives and property of American citizens are properly protected by the government of the day; or, if not, then by its ships of war. It is no new thing for the United States to be called upon to perform such police duty. Many times has the white hull of an American war-ship and the flag floating above her been hailed as an assurance of protection in towns threatened with anarchy. Usually the mere presence of the ship is sufficient. Only once has it happened—in the case of Cuba—that the United States has had to exercise the functions of a policeman who, finding a street fight too obstinate to be otherwise stopped, collars both combatants and brings the affair to abrupt end.—Youth's Companion.

BIG THINGS

Projected by the Eagle Mining Company in Lincoln County Says

JUDGE HAMILTON.

Judge H. B. Hamilton, the well-known El Paso attorney, formerly of this city, spent yesterday here. To the Journal-Democrat, Judge Hamilton said that the Eagle Mining company, of which he is attorney, anticipated spending millions in the development and operation of mines at White Oaks and upon the Bonita. The Eagle mining company is the prospective purchaser of the famous Old Abe mine at White Oaks. Judge Hamilton says that the purchase is almost certain to be completed. Already an advance payment of $20,000 has been made and this will be forfeited in case the contract of purchase be broken. The company is now investigating the merits of mining plants with a view to securing both for the Old Abe and for the inexhaustible mines at Parsons, on the upper Bonita, the sort of machinery that will treat the ore for all the values at the most economical figure.

The Parsons mines, which were purchased by the Eagle company some time ago, contain vast bodies of gold ore, running $4 or $6 to the ton. The ore is easily accessible and the company proposes to install an immense plant that will treat several hundred tons a day at a cost of less than a dollar a ton. The profits will thus be enormous. Some-what similar methods will be employed in the Old Abe, but here the ore bodies are not so large and the values run much higher.

Judge Hamilton reported very prosperous conditions in El Paso. He complimented Albuquerque upon its air of affluence and said he believed the outlook for the city was better than it had ever been. "There are to be two big cities in the southwest," said the attorney. "They will be El Paso and Albuquerque."—Journal-Democrat.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by A. E. Howell, Socorro, and W. M. Borrowdale, Magdalena.

Obviously.

"Why," asked a West Philadelphia teacher of a tenth-grade class of boys the day preceding Memorial day—"why do they put the nation's flag on top of the schoolhouse today?" "Please, teacher," came promptly from one of the young patriots in the class, "because that's where the flag-pole is."—Philadelphia Times.

All Were Saved.

"For years I suffered such untold misery from Bronchitis," writes J. H. Johnston, of Broughton, Ga., "that often I was unable to work. Then, when everything else failed, I was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. My wife suffered intensely from Asthma, till it cured her, and all our experience goes to show it is the best croup medicine in the world." A trial will convince you it's unrivaled for throat and lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at all druggists.

THE PRISONER

Who escapes from jail is by no means free. He is under the ban of the law and punishment is written over against his name. Soon or late he will be caught again and bear added punishment for his short escape from his cell.

Those who by the use of palliative powders and tablets escape for a time from the sufferings of dyspepsia are in the same condition as the escaped prisoner. Soon or late they will go back to the old condition and pay an added penalty for temporary release.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia and other diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. Its cures are lasting.

"For about two years I suffered from a very obstinate case of dyspepsia," writes E. E. Secord, Esq., of 15 Eastern Ave., Toronto, Ontario. "I tried a great number of remedies without success. I finally lost faith in them all. I was so far gone that I could bear any solid food on my stomach for a long time; felt melancholy and depressed. Could not sleep or follow my occupation (timidity). Some friends suggested a friend recommended your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' After a week's treatment I had derived so much benefit that I continued the medicine. I have taken three bottles and am convinced it has in my case accomplished a permanent cure. I can conscientiously recommend it to the thousands of dyspeptics throughout the land."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets stimulate the liver.

Passing of The West.

To those whose days have been spent in the enjoyment of the freedom of the old west, even as it appeared in the '80s, there comes a regret in the contemplation of the new order of things. For assuredly the old has given way to the new, says the Tacoma Ledger. The old west as the early settlers knew it for 20 years or more has gone as went the Indian and the buffalo, and with it has gone that larger freedom which were its characteristics and its charm. There is no longer any west. The methods and conditions of the west are the methods and conditions of the east, plus western energy. Indeed, to be entirely just, it may be questioned whether push is not an importation, for certainly it did not flourish in the ante-railroad days.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grasshopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by A. E. Howell, Socorro; W. M. Borrowdale, Magdalena.

Logical.

Bridget. Oi can't stay, ma'am, unless ye give me more wages. Mrs. Hiram Often. What! Why, you don't know how to cook or do housework at all. Bridget. That's jist it, ma'am, an' not knowin' how, sure the wurk is all the harder for me, ma'am.—Philadelphia Press.

Just Look at Her.

Whence came that sprightly step, faultless skin, rich, rosy complexion, smiling face. She looks good, feels good. Here's her secret. She uses Dr. King's New Life Pills. Result—all organs active, digestion good, no headaches, no chance for "blues." Try them yourself. Only 25c at all druggists.
